Pint-Size Explorers

2011-12

Come explore the zoo and its animals during the colder months of the year! Kids will participate in a variety of activities, crafts, and hands-on animal encounters!

Program Length: Thursdays 3:15-4:45pm

Program Fee: $10/RRZ members
$15/non-members

Rodent Rendezvous: What do porcupines, prairie dogs and squirrels all have in common? They're all rodents! Discover what they have in common, how they are different, and what the keepers do to keep them healthy and happy!
Thursday, September 29th at 3:15pm

Wolf Talk: Spend some time watching the wolves. Discover why they howl, what they eat, and why they remind us of our pet dogs.
Thursday, October 27th at 3:15pm

Goofy Goats: Gotta love goats! Listen to some goat stories and meet the goats living at the zoo! Spend some time feeding and brushing the entertaining goats in the Barnyard.
Thursday, November 10th at 3:15pm

Pandamonium: Discover the differences between the giant panda and the smaller, red panda. Red pandas are unique and endangered animals. They love the winter months and hope you'll brave the weather to come to the zoo and learn more about them!
Thursday, December 8th at 3:15pm

Go Buggy: You guessed it; this class is all about insects and what makes them such amazing animals! How are spiders different...we'll find out; we'll also take a look at animals that love to eat bugs!
Thursday, January 19th at 3:15pm

Cold-blooded Creatures: Turtles, toads, snakes, and lizards are all cold-blooded animals. Find out what cold-blooded really means and discover a variety of these animals at the zoo up close and personal!
Thursday, February 16th at 3:15pm

Mail registration form and payment to: Red River Zoo
